

Miss Giglio
& Miss Roach
Weekly Newsletter
August 21, 2015

Next week's skills:

*Language Arts: We will be reading A Fine, Fine School next week. The target skills are story structure and summarizing. The spelling & vocabulary lists are provided on the back of the newsletter. (Test on Weds. due to no school Fri.)

*Math: This week, we are working on addition and subtracting and pre-assessing our students' current abilities.

Practice at home:

- Read 10 minutes daily
- Addition/subtraction math facts

General Notes:

- We are off to a great start and are happy to have each third grader at Crestwood Intermediate! Thanks to everyone who attended Open House. It was wonderful to meet you! ☺
- Library will be every Thursday starting the week of August 31.
- Reminder: The students are able to bring in a healthy snack each day.
- Follow us on Twitter @ThrivingThird or visit our websites for updates at www.giglioroach.weebly.com ☺
- No school Thurs. 8/27 or Fri. 8/28.
- Lang. Arts homework is given in a packet form. Typically, this is due every Friday. Due to no school, the packet will be due Weds. August 26.

Students can practice next week's spelling words at www.spellingcity.com/giglioteach. Our spelling test will be on Friday.

Students will be bringing home monthly Reading Logs. We encourage each child to be reading for at least 10 minutes every night. Students will receive prizes for those who read the required amount (300 minutes a month). Parents must initial or sign the log daily. Each week the reading log will be checked by the student's teacher.
